

Filed April 13th 1899.

Estate John S. Lyle.

I, John S. Lyle of the City of Richmond, Wayne County, Indiana, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

1st It is my will that all my just debts and expenses be paid out of my estate.

2nd It is my will that all the residue of my property, except as herein provided shall be given and devised to my wife, Caroline Finley Lyle, to be hers to use and dispose of in such manner as she may elect, during her lifetime. At her death it is my will that the residue of said estate shall be disposed of as follows:

To my brother William B. Lyle, Two Hundred Dollars, being for moneys advanced by him to us.

As my life Insurance policy in the Masonic Mutual is made payable equally to my said wife and to my son John H. Lyle, and my said son having paid the assessment on said policy for several years, it is my will that he be reimbursed (aside from his share) in a sum equal to the amount so paid out by him, from the other share in said policy.

It is my will that the remainder of my estate, (if any) shall be divided equally between Isabella K. Hunt and my said son John H. Lyle.

I do hereby make and appoint my said wife Executor of this my last will and testament without bond.

Witness my hand and seal this --- day of August 1895.

John S. Lyle.

Subscribed by said John S. Lyle as his last will and testament in our presence and by us in his presence.

Alfred M. Medearis.

Charles R. Penthank.

State of Indiana, Wayne County, S.D.:

Before me Charles G. Smau, Clerk of the Wayne Circuit Court, personally came Charles R. Penthank, one of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of John S. Lyle, late of Wayne County, Indiana, deceased, and being duly sworn on oath says that he was present at the execution of said last will, and that the same was duly executed. That at the time of the execution thereof, said testator was of full age to devise his property, of sound mind and memory, and not under any coercion or restraint: that the said testator requested

Alfred M. Medearis and this affiant to sign said will as witnesses thereto, which they accordingly did, in the presence of said testator and in the presence of each other as subscribing witnesses thereto.

Charles R. Nuthank

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of April, 1899.
